Re: We Energies Voluntary Programs. Docket No. 6630-GF-136

Dear Ms. Paske:

On June 23, 2015, We Energies filed a document under docket 6630-GF-136, PSC Ref#241964 for the 2016-2017 Voluntary Program Plan. Subsequent to this filing the commission approved the plan with certain order points related to the Residential Assistance voluntary program (see order dated September 18, 2015, PSC Ref#275310).

There were three order points that need to be addressed. On November 18, 2015, We Energies filed a document under docket 6630-GF-136, PSC Ref#278062 that fulfilled the first and third order points.

The second order point was

We Energies shall submit to Commission staff a billing analysis on program participants to assess their achievement of cost and energy savings.

We Energies worked with the Commission staff on determining the proper process for performing a billing analysis on program participants. We Energies has worked with the Focus evaluator and provided the information for the analysis that was performed by Cadmus.

Cadmus determined that the findings for We Energies Residential Program are closely comparable to the findings for income-qualified customers statewide, with an NTG rate that is lower than some programs but still reflective of substantial net savings. Full results are published in the report as part of Appendix J, pp. J-94-J-115, with the key findings in Table J-44 on p. J-115. Direct link to the Appendix document is at

We Energies considers this report to fulfill the second order point.
